Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 21-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification fails to describe the kits as claimed having "at least one phospholipid surfactant" as claimed. This limitation encompasses kits that may have only one surfactant. This broadening limitation was not envisioned at the time of filing. It is clear from the specification that at the time of filing the kits required at least a first and second surfactant. This can be seen throughout the specification, especially, on page 5, which states, "incorporating a mixture of surfactants" and "at least a second surfactant is provided" and so forth. Also, on pages 10 and 12, the specification shows ranges of first and second surfactant that must be present in some amount. Thus, the broadening limitation of limiting the surfactant to "at least one" is new matter.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 22 and 28 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Neither claim 22 nor claim 28 appears to be within the scope of their base claim. For example, claim 22 limits the gas osmotic agent to various gases; however, base claim 21 limits the gas osmotic agent to only the group consisting of perfluoropropane and perfluorohexane. In claim 28, the recitation of the microbubbles contain air is confusing, as it appears that the claim should recite that the microbubbles further comprise air, as air is not recited as an option in base claim 21.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 21-33 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,280,705 and 5,798,091. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the present claims are directly within the scope of the patented claims. For example, the claims of the '705 patent require a first and second surfactant, which is completely encompassed by "at least one surfactant" as claimed. Also, the gases in claim 21 are specifically recited in claims 4 and 5 of '705, as are gas mixtures and so forth. The contrast agent claims of the '091 are within the scope of the present claims because such ultrasound contrast agents would necessarily require an ultrasound imaging apparatus to be used, as defined in the specification of the '091 patent. Additionally, the claims of the '091 patent require a first and second surfactant, which is completely encompassed by "at least one surfactant" and include the gases/mixtures, etc., specifically claimed herein.

Conclusion

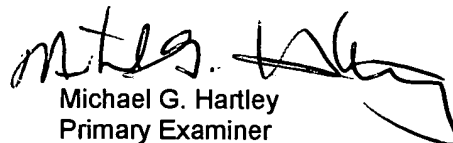

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
